Information and Application for University Choir Scholarship, 2009–2010

Schreiner University is seeking dedicated, interested and talented students to participate in one of the Schreiner University Choirs. The amount of the scholarship/grant varies up to $1,000 for the academic year. One-half of a student's total award will be credited towards his or her University account for the Fall semester and one-half for the Spring semester. In order to receive a scholarship, the following steps need to be followed:

- Fill out scholarship form in its entirety and mail it or give it in person to Mr. Kahl.
- (For new, incoming students only) Provide a letter of recommendation from a choir director or voice teacher who has worked with applicant.
- Set up an audition time with the choir director, Mr. Kahl. New applicant will prepare one solo song (no accompanist will be provided, CD accompaniment or a cappella are acceptable options). Both new and returning applicant will sing sight reading exercises selected by Mr. Kahl and participate in vocal and pitch exercises.
- Applicant must be registered in choir in order to receive a scholarship.
- (For returning students only) Previous grade in choir must be an A in order to be eligible to receive a scholarship for the next semester.

The two choirs offered for credit for the 2009 – 10 school year, are the University Choir, MUSC 1102 and the Concert Choir, MUSC 2102.

- University Choir, MUSC 1102 will meet Mondays and Wednesdays, 4:30-5:45 p.m. in Dietert Auditorium. The ability to blend and match pitch is a pre-requisite; however the ability to read music is optional. Repertoire will include classical, spiritual, music-theater, jazz and pop music.
- Concert Choir, MUSC 2102 will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays, 4:30-5:45 p.m. in Dietert Auditorium. Previous choral experience is necessary as well as the ability to sight read or pick up music quickly. Blending and proper intonation are also pre-requisites. Repertoire will be similar in style to the University choir but with more a cappella selections and various foreign language selections.

All applications received before April 29, 2009, will be considered. If resources remain available after April 30, applications will be considered on a first come, first served basis until available financial resources have been exhausted.

Current and prospective Schreiner University Students are invited to apply by furnishing the following information on the next page.
