

Invites you to the 13th Annual:

Past is Prologue Workshop

The Power of Native American Stories:
In Education
In Community
In Life

We understand that this oral history has been given as a gift to all Earth's children, "so that all this gathered wisdom might not again be washed away by a towering ocean of change."

Based on The Walking People, by Paula Underwood.

Friday, October 19

An evening of stories with Mobi Warren 7:30 p.m.

Floyd & Kathleen Cailloux
Campus Activity Center Ballroom

Saturday, Oct. 20

9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Floyd & Kathleen Cailloux
Campus Activity Center Ballroom
on the Schreiner University Campus

Co-sponsored by Center for Innovative Learning and PIP: A Learning Way

- NO registration fee this year
- Teachers and students invited
- Organizations take advantage of this free training
- CPE's available for workshop

www.learningpeople.org
www.schreiner.edu/pip/

